Drawings

1. Figures 1 & 2 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Abstract is objected to since it is over 150 words.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2666

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ramamurthy et al. (US 6,304,551).

Regarding claim 1, Fig 3 anticipates a congestion control unit.

The limitation, an input data measurement section for measuring the quantity of packet data to be inputted is anticipated by “dual leaky bucket” disclosed in Fig 3, and the corresponding description in column 5, lines 19-20.

The limitation, a packet discarding and judgment section (leaky bucket policer) for conducting a discarding judgment of an arriving packet and outputting a packet not to be discarded into an output queue and input data measurement section is anticipated by “leaky bucket policer discards the violating cells and passes the non-violating cells to the corresponding output queues and leaky bucket” disclosed in column 10, lines 11-60.

Fig 3 of reference discloses, input data measurement section (Dual leaky bucket) including a measurement section (Peak Rate Enforcement section-block 55 of Fig. 3) for outputting a constant quantity of the packet data, which are inputted from the packet discarding judgment section at a predetermined period. Fig 3 of the reference also discloses a smooth queue length (sustainable rate enforcement section-block 60 of fig 3) calculating section for accumulating the data outputted from the measurement section and outputting a constant quality of accumulated data in predetermined time period.

The packet discarding judgment section conducts congestion control by a packet discarding judgment based on smooth queue length which is difference between a quantity of input data and quantity of output data (sustainable bucket size) at each predetermined time period in the smooth queue length calculating section is anticipated by "leaky bucket policer control the congestion by regulating the sustainable bucket size" disclosed in column 11, lines 50-60.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2-5 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Johri (5,625,622), Hamdi et al. (5,724,009), Hayter et al. (5,629,937), Bonomi et al. (5,442,624) and Hluchyj et al (5,524,006).
